

My Belief

Nomy

Somebody filled the ocean
Somebody raised the trees
Somebody wrote with gods pen
Death instead of peace

Somebody painted heaven
Somebody hanged the moon
Somebody wrote it down when
Love was promissed soon

It's the beginning
And the act of god is time
It's the beginning
And death was promissed fine
From the only one

Burn the sinners and they will be gone
Hunt them down and let them burn alone

Somebody made the rain wet
Somebody gave us view
Somebody made it all set
My god and not you

Death was made to love the living
The unknown was to make you ask
A part of me is long gone driving
Embrace the giving task
