

A Thousand Years A Minute

Norma Jean

I am just a sensory of what I've said and done.
This is what I tell myself to pacify the room.
"I suppose living like this is good to you?"
I'm taking what you're giving but the giving takes away.

Is that what you came for?
Is that what you came for?

Yeah
This is what I tell myself to pacify the room.
"I suppose living like this is good to you?"
I'm taking what you're giving but the giving takes away.

Is that what you came for?
Is that what you, is that what you

I should really go backwards like you do.
If I wanted to start over again
I don't want to be like you, like you do.
I don't want to embrace my ghosts again.

Once, twice, and every desperate time.
Once, twice, and every desperate time.
So you wanted to live.
(Once, twice, and every desperate time.)
Is that what you came for?
So you wanted to die.
(Once, twice, and every desperate time.)
Is that what you came for?
So you wanted to live.
(Once, twice)
Is that what you came for?

So you wanted to live.
Is that what you came for?
So you wanted to die.
Once, twice, and every desperate time.
And every desperate time.
Is that what you came for?

Try not to fall into the dark again.
So try, try, try, try.
Try not to fall into the dark again.
So try, try, try, try.
Try not to fall into the dark again.
So try, try, try.

I should really go backwards like you do.
If I wanted to start over again
I don't want to be like you, like you do.
I don't want to embrace my ghosts again.

Is that what you came for?
Is that what you came for?
