

I patiently wait for my turn while you fill the gaps with a bold empathic love hey, is it coming over you?
hey there, we should come together & wait on something new and Christ alive! am I dilating my inhibitions soon dissipating can we afford to stay this way forever & forever amen

this release inside of me
is like my heaven calling endless possibilities
are my defenses falling down?

and all the while the strobing flickers of fireworks I'm peaking quicker than i ever have or will again, or ever will again cut to pieces, your friend in Jesus

hey, is it coming over you?
pledge allegiance and all's forgiven

are my defenses falling down?
are my defenses falling down?
