

I saw the glow in you
It came through the cracks Walked through the walls with you with lasers and knives

It was a deadly assumption a likely delay
If you want dependable
then what do you say?

The streets were a jungle then
A panic attack
'Till you walked through the wall to me
A hand in a hand

The landlord should call time before anyone swears
If you'd seen us dancing away all these cares
what would you say?
what would you say?
