

Another place another time
Another face that looks like mine
Another soul for all to see
Is this reality??

If I could only find the words
I'm sure that they would go unheard
With one exception I can see
Is this reality . . .

Oh--If I could only make time stand still for a moment
Capture a memory--and live it one more time but I believe

That I would really change a thing
A second chance to get it right
I think the end is close at hand
I had a vision I don't understand

Don't you see--I was made for you and you for me
Close your eyes . . .
Are you ready for a big surprise

Oh--hold the clock
Say the words to make it stop
Now, Slam, Bam, Thank you Ma'am
Wasn't it a pleasant life we shared
Now who really cares
Why pretend you don't remember
Wipe it clean and start again
Hope to see you in the summer

Another place another time
Another face that looks like mine
Another soul for all to see
Is this . . . Is this . . .
