

I Want You So Bad I Can't Breathe

OK Go

In your fitted raincoat and tangled winter hair
Cheeks a little rosy in the February air
And running through the subway to catch the uptown train
Spend the night just dancing
And running through the subway to catch the uptown train
Spend the night just dancing

I want you, yeah I want you
I want you, yeah I want you bad
So bad I can't think straight
So bad all my bones shake
So bad I can't breathe

And in the midnight quiet, outside the world away
We could have just one more night that you could stay.
And in the light of morning for 21 days straight
There you are beside me
And in the light of morning for 21 days straight
There you are beside me

So won'tcha? Oh, wantcha say it?
So won'tcha? Oh, wantcha give in?
So won'tcha? Oh, wantcha come on?

I can't breathe 'cause I want you
Yeah, I want you
I want you
Yeah, I want you bad

So bad I can't think straight
So bad all my bones shake
So bad I can't breathe

I want you
Yeah, I want you
So bad I can't breathe

I want you
Yeah, I want you
So bad I can't breathe

I want you, I want you
I want you, I want you
So bad I can't breathe
I can't breathe
