If you should be the last autumn leaf Hanging from the tree
I'll still be here waiting on the breeze
To bring you down to me

And if it takes forever Forever it'll be And if it takes forever Forever it'll be

And if you should be the last seed in spring To venture out a leaf I'll still be here waiting on the rain To warm your heart for me

And if it takes forever Forever it'll be And if it takes forever Forever it'll be
