```
Stop getting me off track.

I mean it, there's a problem here.

This time it is for real...

how can I make myself more clear?
```

I never say quite what I mean, and never mean quite what I say, and how did that get out of me, and what the hell did I mean to say?

This time it is for real.

This is a real emergency.

This time I swear it is the truth...

this must be dealt with urgently!

I never say quite what I mean, and never mean quite what I say, and how did that get out of me, and what the hell did I mean to say?

There's a fire. There's a fire.

I really mean it now, this time I swear I have not lied. This isn't like the last time... I swear to God I have not lied!

I never say quite what I mean, and never mean quite what I say, and how did that get out of me, and what the hell did I mean to say?

There's a fire. There's a fire.
