

2nd Thought

OMD

And all the order in our lives
Left some time ago
Along the way
We are the ones who never cry
Like we don't care
Today

Me at home and you out there
And on your way
It's gone so far and now it seems
It's only me
Who cares

I know it helps the times you asked
Though never gained
A little hope to set you free
Less restrained

And though the order in our lives
We are the ones who never cry
Or so we're told

It's gone so far and now it seems
It's only me
Me at home and you out there
Along the way

Me at home and you out there
Along the way

Me at home and you out there
along the way
