

I want a house, and a car, and a robot wife
I want 2 kids, and the yard, and the perfect life
I want a house, and a car, and a robot wife
I want 2 kids, and the yard, and the perfect life
I want a job, in a block, that can touch the sky
I want a future so bright, that it burns, my eyes

I want a house, and a car, and a robot wife
I want a house, and a car, and a robot wife,
I want more
I want a house, and a car, and the perfect life
I want the future
I want a house, and a car, and a robot wife
I want to love
I want a house, and a car.
