

Crushing Day

Omen

Feel the noose as it tightens around your throat the time
Has come for you to pay back what you owe. Not snapping Bones but a choking of your heart. Feel the hollow that You left me with the leverage that is going to come from this

But I swear I don't want you life, I rather watch you
Wallow in some pain, cuz I'm bringing you your crushing,
Your crushing day.

Spend your time tearing me down with your words, now
Your suffering by your own hand. Don't call for help
Because your wolf cry won't be heard. Time after time
Doing to many lines, you've been left out on your own,
You've been left for dead.

But I swear I don't want you life, I rather watch you
Wallow in some pain, cuz I'm bringing you your crushing,
Your crushing day.

Now you're forced to see things my way. Your bleeding heart
Lies in my hand. I dictate every breath you take.

I feel the noose as it tightens around your throat, I'm not
After your money or your soul. I'll feel this hole that you
Left me with, by the leverage that's going to come from
This, like this.

But I swear I don't want you life, I rather watch you
Wallow in some pain, cuz I'm bringing you your crushing
Your crushing day.

Now you're forced to see things my way. Your bleeding heart
Lies in my hand. I dictate every breath you take.

I'm bringing you your crushing, your crushing day.
