

King Of The Hornets

Orange Goblin

Living in the soul of your mind's frustration
Looking to the sun for a destination
Majesty in awe of the serpent's wonder
Chaos in the shape of a girl named Thunder

Apocalypse now, better hold tight, baby
Wizard of the ancient keys won't save me
Empires fall with the cosmos burning
Destruction of the void, now the world stops turning

Riding through the stars to the twilight oceans
Astral tides that flow with demonic notions
Entities of horror bringing Armageddon
Rockets flying to the blackest sun I'm setting

Swarm of electric death is growing
Seeds of eternal doom they're sowing
Plans for galactic domination
Living in the soul of your mind's frustration

Acid rain is burning
Through the temples of my dreams
As the world stops turning
Can you tell me what that means

God's on my side, baby
But the Devil calls my tunes
And I've been feeling lately
This whole universe is doomed
