

Mouths Of Madness

Orchid

Spiraling in shadows down
Searching for your prey
Spiders of deception weave
The web in which you play
Sadness reaching to other minds
Cracked perception shall soon unwind
Insanity is all you know
Drowning in the poison of your lies to yourself

Can you tell me mother
Tell me where this road you walk unwinds
Tell me all the answers spoken by the wicked
Mouths of madness
The mouths of madness

Insanity is taking hold
Poisoning your brain
Voices whisper thoughts untrue
The songs of the insane
Sadness reaching to other minds
Cracked perception shall soon unwind
Delusional reality
Seeing life through cyber optic eyes
You live through

Can you tell me mother
Tell me where this road you walk unwinds
Tell me all the answers spoken by the wicked
Mouths of madness
The mouths of madness
Oh yeah
The mouths of madness
Oh yeah
The mouths of madness

The frozen images you're living through
The lives you've chained within your mind, yeah
The changeless smiles that you said you knew
Controlling all the ties that bind, yeah

The mouths of madness
Oh yeah
The mouths of madness
Oh yeah
The mouths of madness
Oh yeah
The mouths of madness
Oh yeah
