To exterminate the plague Coiling my brain

I put the pen to the pad Until the madness drains

Cuz words are colossal Aggressive not docile

Infectious like a brothel No need to get hostile

Calling all apostles United we stand

They bleeding out they nostrils I'm wicked with hands

Throwing vicious combinations Witness devastation

I just fucked your soul Annihilation

Feel the sensation Tickle & grow

Spreading over your mind
& taking control

A noble savage on a rampage War is all that I know

Feeding hungry heads
Defeating all your heros

Art saves
Make the pain
A weapon you can use

Art saves
Make the pain
A weapon you can use

From the moment I wake It rains grenades

So I scribble on the page & reality fades

I walk the scottish moors With pagans on forest floors

Test the sacraments
& conjure up thunderstorms

I hunt with Cernunnos

& dance with satyrs

Conquer Rome in a day
& battle armored invaders

Infested with ticks
This existence is shit

All these traitors in the trees While the napalms drips

Words burn their lips Like old roach clips

Holy as I Infected by this

Art saves
Make the pain
A weapon you can us

Art saves
Make the pain
A weapon you can use

Serv Asat

I liberate the devils in my head Through the paragraphs crafted by my pen

These demons drip on the page
My blind multi-eyed children of rage

I coulda took a bat to the back of his head Or dropped a napalm bomb on the bed as she slept

But I split
& wrote it down instead

At least now you know Who you're fucking with

I'm sick
But I'm free

You're weak & I'm built for the siege

(burn)
