

MOSH!

Forevermore submerged in the filth of your deceit as you preach that sinners burn your soul rots away

Meateater!
time for you has come to bleed

Consumed from within by the abuse that you breed you thrive on the innocent provided by your sheep

THRASH!

Life moves clockwise but in hell there's no time only penitance, and no deliverance

Drained of life you lie awaiting no redemption
there is no turning back as all turns black-as your soul

There's no lenience only severance
of your limbs for eternity as you suffer!

Drained of life you lie
awaiting no redemption
there is no turning back as all turns black-as your soul

Black robe, white collar preying on the young man of the cloth until your time has come then you'll be but meat to burn

Meateater!
time for you has come to bleed Meateater!
DIE!
