Oh, little did she know Couldn't let me go Already a part of her

So, often do I need People in between That just can't get a hold of it

So we'll just sing it for them (ahhh)
Yeah, we'll just sing it for them
(Just can't get a hold of it)
So we'll just sing it for them (ahhh)
Yeah, we'll just sing it

It's the greatest thing that's yet to have happened Imagine knowing me
It's the greatest thing you'd ever imagine
But you'll never know until you're there
No, you'll never know until you're there

Slow, leave walking to the world Give your feet a chance They'll do all the thinking Toast, high until they find Less pathetic wine Until they get a better blend

And we'll just drink it for them (ahhh)
Yeah we'll just drink it for them
(Until they get a better plan)
So we'll just drink it for them (ahhh)
Yeah we'll just drink it

It's the greatest thing that's yet to have happened Imagine knowing me
It's the greatest thing you'd ever imagine
But you'll never know until you're there
You'll never know until you're there

It's the greatest thing that's yet to have happened Imagine knowing me
It's the greatest thing you'd ever imagine
But you'll never know until you're there
No, you'll never know until you're there
No, you'll never know until you're there
