

Stick to My Side

Pantha du Prince

Why to decide has no place in my life
What's all and what's all to decide
There's some things I won't follow.

Thats why I stick to my side
Why I stick to the things that I've already tried.

I, despite the times that I've been less than what you'd call my best,
I never fully broke that spore, you ought to always stay on a side.
