

Maybe This Time For Sure

Paul Kelly

Maybe this time for sure
Things are gonna work out different
Not the way they did before
Maybe this time for sure
I can break out of the circle
I can find another door

Maybe this time I just might learn my lesson
Maybe this time I'll leave the past behind
Maybe this time I'll grab hold of my chances
Maybe this time I'll have a clearer mind

Maybe this time for sure
I can look into the mirror
I can stay up off the floor
Maybe this time for sure
I can roll right with the punches
I can hold some things in store

Maybe this time their tongues will all fall silent
Maybe this time I'll make them eat their words
Maybe this time I'll listen to the warnings
Maybe this time I'll hold onto my nerve

Maybe this time for sure
I'll keep both my eyes wide open
I'll know what I'm living for
Maybe this time for sure
I can walk the straight and narrow
On the right side of the law
Maybe this time I'll stick with my intentions
Maybe this time I'll have no need to lie
Maybe this time I won't fall for temptation
Maybe this time Satan will pass me by
