For me to say what i'm about to say Could take a bit of courage. But i can summon up enough of this and maybe more. Without your love i know i'd find it difficult, No reason to continue, So how can anyone live not knowing what love is. I can't imagine how it feels to never been in love like this before, I don't wanna think about it anyhow. I can't imagine how it feels to never been in love like this before, We don't have to talk about it, (talk about it) no, not Need a lie, when i don't have to lie, It get me into trouble And i've been keepin' out of trouble for a long time now. (long time, long time) So this is true, it's me for you eternity, Can go and last forever. But while we're taking our time, I pity those that love left behind, oo -I can't imagine how it feels to never been in love like this before, I don't wanna think about it (think about it) anyhow, anyhow. (oh) I can't imagine how it feels to never been in love like this before, We don't have to talk about it, (talk about it) oh, not now. Oh - oh-oh-oh. Talk about it now. I can't imagine how it feels to never been in love like this before, I don't wanna think about it, think about it anyhow. I can't imagine how it feels to never been in love like this before, (like this before) I don't have to talk about it, (talk about it) no, not now. I can't imagine how it feels to never been in love like this before, I don't wanna think about it, (i can't imagine) think about it anyhow.
