

Girl in the Fire

Pendulum

it seems like it wasn't for nothing looks like time had to move to the ground & maybe everything that could have been was thrown away so just take what is left & somehow fill the space when i can see through echo i feel safe again i feel warmer

sounds of life inside
why do i hide

couldn't have seen it come from an entry way but it's here, right on time wait for the flash of grey & we will feel the same if we can just drift for a while when im back on the ground i feel safe again

why do i hide
