

Sometimes I Remember

Pernice Brothers

How her hair got lost in the morning light
And her eyes as kind as the fallen rain
And a voice that steadies a shaken man
Caught in indecision
I remember

How I lose myself in a shadow cast
And a bed so tense I don't sleep at night
When she can't let go of the troubles past
If we're unimagined
I remember

Sometimes I remember, I remember
Sometimes I remember, I remember
I remember

How I lose myself in a shadow cast
