

World Of Her Own

Peter Andre

I heard a sound in the distance
I remember so clear
And it drew me closer
As if fate brought me right here
Right here at the doorway
Where the night would begin
I didn't feel like a stranger
They said just come on in

Where the music was playing it was gettin me started
People all around me
But I didn't expect what my eyes saw next
She mesmerized me
By the way that she moved

She was dancing
Dancing like nobody's watching
In a world of her own
She was moving
Moving like no-one was watching
So how could I let her know?

As I stepped 2 the dance floor
People getting down
I'm trying not 2 focus, but i
Keep lookin around
I knew I had 2 approach her
But she seemed so far away
Then came the right moment
Let nuthin stand in my way

The music was playing it was gettin me started
People all around me
But she didn't expect what I told her her
She mesmerized me
By the way that she moved

She was dancing
Dancing like nobody's watching
In a world of her own
She was moving
Moving like no-one was watching
So how could I let her know?

I had 2 say girl
You look so good
You are the one you know that you got the look
Then I see her smiling
She understands
We can move together

We were dancing
Dancing like nobody's watching
In a world of our own
We were moving
Moving like one-one was watching
But how could I let her know?

She was dancing
I was watching
She was moving
