I Changed The Rules

Peter Cincotti

Don't keep on asking where I've been I'm not some guy you discipline Stop that crying, no use justifying Baby, I changed the rules

Don't keep me waiting at the door
I'm not some cat that you ignore
Keep on whining and I'll keep on declining
Baby, I changed the rules

You can't stop me from shooting the breeze I always say and do as I please But don't stop trying, you know I'm gratifying Keep the pace, you're in the race

You feel the heat right by my side Stay close, I'll take you for a ride Stimulating really intoxicating Baby, I changed the rules
