

Lost A Part Of You

Peter Frampton

Don't you see you're in my heart?
But I'm thinking of myself
But every time I see your face
It makes me want to cry
All at once you've lost your will to try

Oh, nobody helped me when I lost a part of you
No one can help me through this crazy world but you, ooh, oh

I can see you tried so hard
To make me feel so strong
Then I drift in emptiness
And you know where I've gone
All at once your love wills to try, oh, oh

Nobody helped me when I lost a part of you
No one can help me through this crazy world but you
Nobody helped me when I lost a part of you
No one can help me through this crazy world but you

Nobody helped me when I lost a part of you
No one can help me through this crazy world but you
Nobody helped me when I lost a part of you
No one can help me through this crazy world but you

Nobody helped me when I lost a part of you
