75 Septembers

Peter, Paul and Mary

- 1. In the year of the yellow cab In the shadow of the great world war The third kid grandmom had Came into this world On a rolling farm in Maryland When Wilson was the President And summer blew her good-bye through the trees
- 2. A child of changing times Growing up between the wars The Fords rolled off the line And bars all closed their doors And I imagine you back then With snap brim hat and farmer's tan Where horses drew their wagons through the fields
- R: Now the fields are all four lanes
 And the moon's not just a name
 Are you more amazed at how things change
 Or how they stay the same
 And do you sit here on this porch and wonder
 How the time flies by
 Or does it seem to barely creep along
 With 75 Septembers come and gone
- 3. Were the fields all gold and fawn
 Was the spring house dark and cool
 Did the rooster crow at dawn
 When they got you up for school
 And would you tell me once again
 The tales of grandad's hired men
 And how they drove the old road to town
 R:
