Sea and Sand

Here by the sea and sand Nothing ever goes as planned I just couldn't face going home It was just a drag on my own They finally threw me out My mom got drunk on stout My dad couldn't stand on two feet As he lectured about morality Now I guess the family's complete With me hanging round on the street Or here by the beach

The girl I love Is a perfect dresser Wears every fashion Gets it to a tee Heavens above I have to match her She knows just how she wants her man to be Leave it to me

My jacket's gonna be cut slim and checked With just a touch of seersucker with an open neck I ride a G.S. scooter with my hair cut neat I wear my wartime coat in the wind and sleet

I see her dance Across the ballroom UV light making starshine of her smile I am the face She has to know it I'm dressed up better than anyone in a mile

So how come the other kids look much better? Without even a penny, they dress to the letter How come the girls come on oh so cool? But when you meet 'em, every one's a fool?

Come sleep on the beach Keep within my reach I just want to die with you hear I'm feeling so high with you nere I'm wet and I'm cold But thank God I ain't old I should have split home at fifteen Why didn't I ever say what I mean There's a story that the grass is so green What did I see? Where have I been?

Nothing is planned, by the sea and the sand
