

God Is A DJ

Pink

1. I've been the girl with her skirt pulled high
Been the outcast never running with mascara eyes
Now I see the world as a candy store
With a cigarette smile, saying things you can't ignore
Like mommy I love you
Daddy I hate you
Brother I need you
Lover, hey, "fuck you"
I can see everything here with my third eye
Like the blue in the sky

R: If God is a DJ
Life is a dance floor
Love is the rhythm
You are the music
If God is a DJ
Life is a dance floor
You get what you're given
It's all how you use it

2. I've been the girl - middle finger in the air
Unaffected by rumours and truth I don't care
So open your mouth and stick out your tongue
You might as well let go you can't take back what you've done
So find a new lifestyle
A reason to smile
Look for Nirvana
Under the strobe lights
Sequins and sex dreams you whisper to me
there's no reason to cry

R: If God is a DJ...

*: You take what you get and you get what you give
I say don't run from yourself, man, that's no way to live
I've got a record in my bag you should give it a spin
Lift your hands in the air so that life can begin

If God is a DJ... If God...
If God is a DJ then life is a dancefloor
Get your ass on the dance floor now...

R: If God is a DJ... (3x)
