

I Know a Song

Plan B

We used to get on fine
Once upon a time,
Yea we were alright, but you were mean.

Now we don't talk and it's a shame,
I guess I only have myself to blame,
Cos girl you meant so much to me.

And if I ever see you again,
I know a song
I can sing
If I ever see you again,
I know a song, I know a song
I can sing.

All those things that people used to say,
That only, got in the way,
The way of you and me.

Oh they were nothing more than words,
And even if they were,
It don't matter to me yea ohh.

And if I ever see you again,
I know a song
I can sing
Girl if I ever see you again,
I know a song, I know a song
I can sing.

Next time I'm playing out,
If I see you in the crowd,
There's only one song,
I'ma sing out loud,
Cos girl I did you bad,
And yes I made you sad,
I just want you to know.

If I ever see you again,
I know a song
I can sing,
Yea yeah 'ea.

If I ever see you again,
I know a song, I know a song
I can sing
Yea ye' yeah.

If I ever see you again,
I know a song
I can sing,

Girl If I ever see you again,
I know a song, I know a song,
I can sing.
