

Even Fairy Tale Characters Would Be Jealous

PlayRadioPlay!

17 and runnin' up the stairs, my baby bear
7 lonely hours that I've been without a shower
Until you and I meet in the bathroom with the water on Steamin' up the room with little but a towel on

And you are my high
And you are my high just like

A joint or two just hangin' out the window in September
On the 28th I'll be dethroned and sent to clean up my act
4 months in a penitentiary where I can read
And think I'll make it home

And you are my high
And you are my high just like
And you are my high, oh

Everythin' I said last night when we were in the car
Tellin' you I knew, I knew, I knew that we would make it far
Everyone in this town will see
Someone like you could be with someone like me

Even fairy tale characters would be jealous
Even fairy tale characters would be jealous
Even fairy tale characters would be jealous
Even fairy tale characters

And you are my high
And you are my high just like
And you are my high

Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song
Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song
Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song
Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song
Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song
Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song

Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song
(And you are my high)
Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song
(And you are my high just like)
Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song
(And you are my high, oh)
Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song

Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song
Doo doo, we've been singin' the bad song
