Four O'Clock in the Morning

The Pogues

Four o'clock in the morning When the ambulance arrived Four o'clock in the morning When the ambulance arrived

Blue light was flashing
As they lay my baby down inside

They took her to the hospital
In the darkest hour of the night
They took her to the hospital
In the darkest hour of the night

It was silent as the grave
As my baby lay beneath the light

They turned on the gas and cut her open She didn't feel no pain They turned on the gas and cut her open She didn't feel no more pain

Daylight was breaking And down came the rain

Down came the rain Down came the rain Down came the rain

Down came the rain Down came the rain
