

Stealing Candy From A Baby

Porcelain Black

No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
With you I don't have to try
You get no love
So bye bye
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby

my newer boy be hittin' blunts yea he bad he take a hit, he take a swig, then he pass swag it (rock it), cause it (out), In the streets
I'd like to see what happens if you two meet

Cause you're a push over
You ain't no super nova
Just give it up and leave me
Leave me alone

No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
With you I don't have to try
You get no love
So bye bye
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby

I like it hot
And you're mild
Can't tame a beast from the wild
A beast from the wild no oh

No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby

Eminem he got that great got that dirt
His words are dinner and his rap are dessert
He'll chew you up, and spit you out, like a hoe
So thats the cue now please just fucking go

Cause you're a hanger-onna
You ain't no balla balla
Just give it up and leave me
Leave me alone

No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
With you I don't have to try
You get no love
So bye bye
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby

I like it hot
And you're mild
Can't tame a beast from the wild
A beast from the wild no oh

No fun if there is no chase
You throw yourself in my face
It's easier than stealing candy from a baby
