

Love Colours

The Pretenders

The sun goes down
The sky turns black
I can hardly wait for you
I can't believe the madness
everything you do

I used to dream
In black and white
Now I see the world
In a different light

Your love colours, colours everything
Your love colours, colours everything
Your love colours, colours everything
Your love colours, colours everything

Come in to me
Fill me and fill me
Show me your colours, baby
Your love colours

I slept in fear
And woke in pain
'Til you came in close to me
I was cold like frozen rain
Your kiss melted me

You speak your mind
Just like a child
Won't be defined
By when you smile

Your love colours, colours everything
Your love colours, colours everything
And your love colours, colours everything
Your love colours, colours everything

Now come in to me
Fill me and fill me
Show me your colours, baby
Your love colours

Your love colours everything
Your love colours everything
Your love colours everything
Your love colours everything

Shut up, shut up, shut up, shut up
Shut up, shut up, shut up, shut up
Shut up, shut up, shut up, shut up
Shut up, shut up, shut up, shut up
