

Vibe So Hot

Priscilla Ahn

You've got a vibe so hot
You're really, really turning me on
Swimming in your parking lot
I'm singing in a camp on your lawn

And everyday without you is just a waste of time
You're the first thing on my mind when I wake up
You're the last thing that I think of when I go to sleep
I'm throwing you my love, so pick it up

And you can have me anytime you want
You can have me really anytime you want
You can have me anytime you want
You can have me really anytime you want
I want you now
I want you right now
I want you right now
I want you right now

I wanna hook you up
Boy, I'm gonna set you on fire
I wanna turn your volume up
And listen to you all day long

Now every other station's just a memory
I tuned you in and then broke off the dial
Isn't it funny how you just keep running into me
I've been listening to your music for a while

And you can have me anytime you want
You can have me really anytime you want
You can have me anytime you want
You can have me really anytime you want
I want you now
I want you right now
I want you right now
I want you right now
