

With You

Priscilla Ahn

Meet me on the shore
I will give you more of my heart
I swear I'll give you every part of me

Tell me where you go
When you feel alone I'll be there
Anytime anywhere you need me eum

Winds will howl and tides will rise
Some days I'll smile some days I'll cry
But with you it'll be alright eum

When you go back home or places still unknown
Think of me
I will find you in a dream
Sweet dream eum

I will be your friend til the very end
Hold on tight I'll never lose you
In the darkest night uh

Winds will howl and tides will rise
Some days I'll smile some days I'll cry
But with you it'll be alright
