

Self-knowledge

Project Pitchfork

Father - why are the
Children crying here?
Mother - why do they
Have so much fear?
Well my son let me
Explain
We live our lifes
Different
Nothing is the same!
But mom - I think it's the Same
I'm a child too
The difference is just the name
They have nothing
I have a lot
They feel the pain
I see their blood!
A child is a child
You have to take care
We are so small and innocent
Like an angels hair
It also could happen to Me
Have you ever thought
About your life
In this society?
Father - there is still so
Much to do
We need you trust
And your helping hand too!
Who is guilty
Who is not
Could it be me
Or could it be god
Who is guilty
Who is not
Could it be you
Or could it be got
Who can change things
Could it be me
I'm just a small part
Of this society
But it's me
Who can change a lot
Is it wrong to say
That I am god?
