

Keep On Living in Pain

Prong

For what I do this everyday?
Without potential for success?
Keep hoping that I will persist
To apathy I will admit

I used to keep wracking my brain
Doing everything the same
To the question of attitude renewed
I simply explain:

For what? Keep on living in pain
So what? Keep on living in pain
For what? Keep on living in pain
To that... no reason we are living in pain
For what? Keep on living in pain
So what? Keep on living in pain
For what? Keep on living in pain
To that... no reason we are living in pain

For what I reach in then I pay?
With more delusion I invest (further into the unknown)
Into a world that will not last (no time to give yourself hope)
No desires to enhance (now we have the overload)

A new deflection, an attitude renewed
I never wanted to know
I never knew you could have it this way
Everything has got to go

For what? Keep on living in pain
So what? Keep on living in pain
For what? Keep on living in pain
To that... no reason we are living in pain
For what? Keep on living in pain
So what? Keep on living in pain
For what? Keep on living in pain
To that... no reason we are living in pain

They told you, you were in control
I never wanted to know
No time to give yourself hope
I tell you: Everything's got to go

For what? Keep on living in pain
So what? Keep on living in pain
For what? Keep on living in pain
To that... no reason we are living in pain
For what? Keep on living in pain
So what? Keep on living in pain
For what? Keep on living in pain
To that... keep on living, living in pain
