

Haunted

Psyche

Attempts have failed
Impulse leads to no avail
Body weaving break the fall
I'm coming through the wall

Restless running
Close behind you
Razor eyes
Coming through the wall

Stretched across the sea of skin
Instinct flows like a virus
In my veins

Teeth come flying out of darkness
Hallway you just turned around
Shows you no door
And the leash breaks
Coming through the wall
It's coming through the wall
I'm coming through the wall

Haunting you
