

Outta My Face

Reece Mastin

Yeah you, you think you're gonna make a fool of me,
But it's alright,
Yeah you, no, you don't know the mess you made of me,
After last night,
You sold me the perfect dream,
Now it's time to wake up, from this nightmare, poor me,
Yeah you got me where you want me but you don't, don't, don't.

So get outta my face, sorry it's too late,
Your words are a waste now, (now)
Yeah you think you're so cool, treat me like a tool,
The tables have turned now, now,
I turn it up
Scream and shout it out, the bright life, right here, right now,
Get outta my way, I'm done with this chase,
Get outta my face now, now.

This, this life is the enemy and you bet it's your fault,
You should know, those that kiss always kiss and tell,
And it finally showed,
Don't tell me, it's not like me, to be acting this way now,
Girl it's over, I said see-ya,
You had me where you want me now you don't, don't, don't.

So get outta my face, sorry it's too late,
Your words are a waste now, (now)
Yeah you think you're so cool, treat me like a tool,
The tables have turned now, now,
I turn it up
Scream and shout it out, the bright life, right here, right now,
Get outta my way, I'm done with this chase,
Get outta my face now, now, now.

Now it's over,
Now it's over,
Woah,

So get outta my face, sorry it's too late,
Your words are a waste now, (now)
Yeah you think you're so cool, treat me like a tool,
The tables have turned now, now,
I turn it up
Scream and shout it out, the bright life, right here, right now,
Get outta my way, i'm done with this chase,
Get outta my face now, now, now,
Get outta my face now, now, now,
Get outta my face now, now, now.
