

Stand Up Be Proud

Reece Mastin

Such a pretty face, is that all you are?
There you say you've had your day, your a fallen star, Shattered your shell and stolen your name, they treat you oh so bad, honey thats the game,
Is that all you can be?
Can't you see?

If you've had enough then don't back down, open your eyes and j ust breath out, don't let them win stand up be proud,

Put on your pretty dress and get out of town, its time to start again and take the crown,
Is that all you can be?
Can't you see?

If you've had enough then don't back down, open your eyes and j ust breath out, don't let them win stand up be proud, you are the one, you are the sound of your own heart, beating o ut loud, beat your own drum, stand up be proud,

Is that all you can be?
Stand up be proud,
Is that all you can be?
Cant you see?

If you've had enough then don't back down, open your eyes and j ust breath out, don't let them win stand up be proud,
you are the one, you are the sound of your own heart, beating o ut loud, beat your own drum, stand up be proud,

If you've had enough then don't back down, open your eyes and j ust breath out, don't let them win stand up be proud,
you are the one, you are the sound of your own heart, beating o ut loud, beat your own drum, stand up be proud.
