

So In Love With You

Resurrection Band

Somewhere in Scotland or Wales
I met You in heather
Under starlit skies, was it in November
A dream, a thought, a whisper there
All I know is now I know You care
Somewhere in time I realized

What can I say, can I do
I'm so in love with You

Somewhere in time I realized how lost I'd been
Black out on the moors, taunting Northern wind
Rainsoaked daybreak, arriving at Land's End
Dawn paints storm clouds
You coloured me Your friend

Your name, my reason for being
If love is, so are You
Blue tide, mirror bright
My heart reflects Your truth
A spark, a prayer beyond the lee
I found joy in Your reality
Jesus, I'm so in love with You
