

In This All Alone

Richard Marx

You could say that I am not who I used to be
And I could say it's all because of you
This is complicated, yeah, this is new for me
But it's my heart I'm listening to

Every time that you're around
All my walls come crashing down
And I am swept away like drops
Of rain into the ocean
Kiss me once before you go
In a way that makes me know
That I'm not in this all alone

In your eyes I see my life catching up with me
And you're the finish line I'm running to Yeah, I've been good and I've been just
Who I'm supposed to be
I've been everything but true

I am helpless, at your will See me shaking standing still
I've been swept away like drops
Of rain into the ocean
Kiss me once before you go
In a way that makes me know
That I'm not in this world alone

The door is open now
Oh, won't you show me how
To be right where you are
