

I Won't Desert You

Ricky Martin

Sorry babe, won't forget all about you
Can't deny, all the ways that I've hurt you
All I know, life is harder without you, gone away
Baby I won't desert you

I was so lost, I was so gone and you so lonely
I didn't realize the things I've done to you
There's no excuse there's not a way that I convince you
It's hard to find someone that loves the way you do

You are the breath that fills my soul, oh
You know that now the road's my home
And it's calling me on and on

Sorry babe, won't forget all about you
Can't deny, all the ways that I've hurt you
All I know, life is harder without you, gone away
Baby I won't desert you

You want it all but all we have it's just this moment
I can't promise you anymore then that
So baby look at me and we can make it through this
I never meant for this to make you feel so bad

You are the breath that fills my soul, oh
You know that now the road's my home
And it's calling me on and on

Sorry babe, won't forget all about you
Can't deny, all the ways that I've hurt you
All I know, life is harder without you, gone away
Baby I won't desert you

Sometimes it feels like, every road leads me back to you
Sometimes it feels like, the thought of you take me home
Takes me home, and it takes me home, takes me

Sorry babe, won't forget all about you
Can't deny, all the ways that I've hurt you
All I know, life is harder without you, gone away
Baby I won't desert you

Sorry babe, won't forget all about you
Can't deny, all the ways that I've hurt you
All I know, life is harder without you, gone away
Baby I won't desert you

Every road leads me
Every road leads me darling
Leads me back to you back to you
