He wants to be
Up in the sky, so high
Above the clouds, down below
So low

She wants to be Right by his side Lay on her back and watch the world Pass by Life's too short for the living You know that life's too long for the dying But it's alright Don't you know it's alright?

Up in the sky
They can finally be alone
Then they'll be no
Burden to anyone
Anymore
To anyone
Ever again

He puts his hat
Under his arm
Soon he is leaving, please don't be
Alarmed
She's packed a lunch
In a white paper bag
And told the nurses, they're all mad
Quite mad

Cause life's too short for the living You know that life's too long for the dying But it's alright Don't you know it's alright?

Up in the sky
They can finally be alone
Then they'll be no
Burden to anyone
Anymore
Anyone
Ever again

Mmmm

Up in the sky
They can finally be alone
Then they'll be no
Burden to anyone
Anymore
To anyone
Ever again

To anyone Anymore Anyone Ever again

To anyone Anymore Anyone Ever again
