

No Doubt

Robin Gibb

Mmmmm, oh, ooh, oh baby.

It's Friday night, and I just got paid.
Going out on the town,
Trying to get my freak on.

I can't see me staying home all alone.
No, it ain't right, I got to go out
And see if I can find that special one.

You can be the one that I want
To get it on with, you and me, me and you,
Rocking to the break of dawn.

You can be the one
That I want to go home with,
Take you from the club to my spot,
Then we can get right to it, yeah.

No doubt - me and you, yeah, yeah.
No doubt - popping crystal, yeah.
No doubt - chilling at the house.
Get into the shower for half an hour, yeah.

No doubt - all inside the club, yeah.
No doubt - get some good lovin'.
No doubt - I just want to break you off.
Oh we to the break of dawn.

I can tell that you need a love like mine,
But you try to lay shy
Like you ain't feeling my vibe.

But I know what you need,
The only kind of love I give.
So why don't we both keep it real,
Do the kind of things we feel?
Oh yeah.

You can be the one
That I want to get it on with,
All night long, me and you,
Getting it on.

Is that what you were thinking?
You can be the one that I wanted
To go home with,
The one to go home with
Then we can get right to it, yeah.

No doubt - me and u, yeah, yeah.
No doubt - popping crystal, yeah.
No doubt - chilling at the house.
Get into the shower for half an hour, yeah.

No doubt - all inside the club, yeah.
No doubt - get some good lovin'.

No doubt - I just want to break you off.
Oh we to the break of dawn.

No doubt, no doubt...
