

Dark Green Energy

Robyn Hitchcock

I'll find the rain
Above the clouds
A father lies
Beyond the shroud
The natural grey
Is still the bed
Don't close your eyes
Until you're dead
The world is full
Of sap and oil
Until it bursts
Just like a boil
And it is mine
And it is yours
It's in my spine
And through your pores
See my dark green energy
Yeah
This light of mine
It never fails
It's very dark
It never pales
From every dream
Across the land
Into your mouth
Into your hand
Temptation crawls
Just like a fly
Into your heart
Into your eye
Here's some for me
And some for you
I love you, but
You know I do
See my dark green energy
Yeah
See my dark green energy
Yeah
See my dark green energy
Yeah
Yeah
