

The Rain

Robyn Hitchcock

I, I can't believe my luck
It seems I'm well and truly stuck
Now it's coming on again
My only friend the rain
You, you took me by surprise
When you opened up my eyes
All I noticed was a stain
My only friend the rain
My only friend the rain
I, I watched big chimneys fall
But you went through me like a wall
Are you sure you're not insane?
My only friend the rain
My only friend the rain
My only friend the rain
My only friend the rain
My only friend the rain
