

I Ain't Superstitious

Rod Stewart

Ain't superstitious
Black cat crossed my trail
I ain't superstitious
But a black cat crossed my trail
Bad luck ain't got me so far
And I won't let it stop me now

The dogs begin to bark
All over my neighborhood, that ain't all
Dogs begin to bark
All over my neighborhood, hmm
This is a mean old world to live in
And I can't face it all by myself, at all

And dogs begin to bark
All over my neighborhood
The dogs begin to bark
All over my neighborhood
I got a feelin' about the future
And it ain't too good, I know that

I know, I know, I know, I

Ain't superstitious
But a black cat crossed my trail
I said it so many times before
Ain't superstitious
A black cat crossed my trail
Bad luck ain't got me so far
And you know, I ain't gonna let it stop me now

Come on
