

I Wonder Who

Rory Gallagher

I wonder who,
Will be your sweet man,
When I'm gone?

I wonder who,
Will be your sweet man,
When I'm gone?

Who's gonna have to love you?
Who's gonna carry your business on?

I wonder who,
Will be your sweet man,
When I'm gone?

Yeah...

I wonder who,
Will be your sweet man,
When I'm gone?

Yeah....

Who you gonna have to love you?
Who's gonna carry your red house on?

Oh yeah...

You see my pretty girl,
Walkin' on down the street,
She just laughing and playing,
With every man she meet.

I wonder who,
Will be your sweet man,
When I'm gone?

Who you gonna have to love you?
Who's gonna carry your business on?

Yes, I would marry you,
But I'd marry you too soon,
So I guess you're gonna have to wait,
Until after your honeymoon.

I wonder who,
Will be your sweet man,
When I'm gone?

Yahh...

Who you gonna have to love you?
Who's gonna carry your business on?

Yeah...

I wonder who,

Walk you home every Friday night?

All right...

I wonder who,
Gonna walk you home every Friday night?

They'll take good care of you baby,
Make sure everything is just out of sight.

All right...

Who you gonna have to love you?
Who's going to carry your business on?
Who's going to carry your business on?
Who's going to carry your business on?
