

Lets kill the playlist.
All the same bands, so repetitious.
Denying us the freedom we deserve.

Will someone tell me why we even listen?
Airwaves are filled with repetition.
What ever happened to selection?
Tune in and they will waste your time.
Is anybody bored yet?

They've got you by their strings again tonight.
So quick to find that dollar in the sky.

Follow new trends.
Be sure you get it right.
It's the same sounds, and the same songs.
Watch the music change before your eyes.
We need to see through the disguise.
