

Shadows

Sabrina Carpenter

We all got nightmares and no dreams
We look for someone to believe in us
And show us the way
And make it okay
The world can be dangerous

There's something so rare in your veins
Not a single thing I would change
And oh, if you only knew how I see you
Would you come alive again
Alive again
I need you to understand
I don't mind your shadows
'Cause they disappear in the light
I don't mind your shadows
'Cause they look a lot like mine

And listen to me
It's okay to be afraid
Just walk like you're never alone
I don't mind your shadows
Your shadows, baby I don't

Pictures and our hair
Of what was supposed to be
Measuring ourselves but where is the love
Where is the love
The world got us wondering, wondering

I need you to understand
That I don't mind your shadows
'Cause they disappear in the light
I don't mind your shadows
'Cause they look a lot like mine

And listen to me
It's okay to be afraid
Just walk like you're never alone
And I don't mind your shadows

And all these voices in our head
While I keep screaming louder and louder
Well they won't pull us under

Baby, I don't mind your shadows
'Cause they disappear in the light
I don't mind your shadows
'Cause they look a lot like mine

And listen to me
It's okay to be afraid
Just walk like you're never alone
And I don't mind your shadows
